

Job Summary

Punxsutawney Area Hospital, an independent community hospital, is currently interviewing for a fifth MDA due to increase case load in growing hospital employed practice. Anesthesiologist will rotate between three primary locations: Indiana Regional Medical Center (7000 total OR procedures/year), the adjacent Indiana Ambulatory Surgical Associates Center (3000 procedures/year), and Punxsutawney Area Hospital (2300 total OR procedures/year). The group provides medical direction for all employed CRNAs. The Medical Center has 300 deliveries/year and Punxsutawney Area Hospital has 150 deliveries/year; no open heart or intracranial procedures. Outpatient pain management is provided by another specialty group.

Highly competitive compensation based on experience.

Benefits include:

- Malpractice Insurance
- CME Allowance
- Health Insurance including an HSA
- 403b
- Relocation Allowance
- Educational Loan Reimbursement
- Sign-on Bonus

This position is ideal for an anesthesiologist interested in maintaining clinical skills in a busy practice while enjoying a quality family lifestyle in a quaint atmosphere.

Punxsutawney Area Hospital continues to improve services, recruit skilled physicians, update technology, and focus on providing the best health care to people in the tri-county area. Garnering both state and national recognition, Punxsutawney Area Hospital is committed to upholding a 130-year tradition of meeting the health care needs of the people in Punxsutawney and surrounding communities.

Our anesthesia department is highly regarded throughout the region as delivering exceptional quality care and maintains high patient and surgeon satisfaction. The anesthesiologists' practice in a care team with a group of highly skilled CRNAs who provide extraordinary care.

Community profile

Punxsutawney is a quaint, small town in Western Pennsylvania located in Jefferson County. World famous for its weather predicting Groundhog, Phill is celebrated each year on February 2nd. Outdoor recreation abounds in Punxsutawney including boating, fishing, hiking, and biking. Throughout the year, cultural and heritage events and activities bring the town alive. Don't miss Gobbler's Knob, the home to Groundhog Day celebration.